Biography

Alison Frankel writes the daily On the Case column for Reuters and Westlaw. Frankel has been a legal journalist since 1988. She began as a magazine writer and editor for The American Lawyer, then moved over to daily coverage in 2008, when she co-created The Litigation Daily. In 2011, she joined Reuters.

Reuters has honored Frankel's column every year since it began with a nomination for Best Commentary and Analysis. Frankel won the category in 2012. Her previous work at The American Lawyer received numerous business and legal trade journalism awards. Her work has also appeared in The New York Times, Newsday and several national magazines. In addition, Frankel is the author of Double Eagle: The Epic Story of the World's Most Valuable Coin (Norton, 2006).

Frankel is a graduate of Dartmouth College and the extremely proud mother of two recent Dartmouth grads.
